MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director for Support

25X1 VIA : [redacted]

SUBJECT : Memorandum from Director, Office of Emergency Planning (OEP) to Heads of Agencies Having Civil Emergency Preparedness Responsibilities dated 17 April 1972 (ER 72-2192)

1. Referent memorandum requests CIA concurrence and/or comments and recommendations on a revision of OEP planning documents entitled Emergency Documents for Contingencies Short of a Plan D Situation. These plans have no direct bearing on CIA emergency planning programs as the Agency is not given specific emergency responsibilities in the Presidential Emergency Action Documents. Although we received this as a matter of courtesy and information, we are expected to provide our concurrence.

2. Attached is our reply for the Executive Director's signature. For your information, our 1971 response to referent plans was signed by Col. White (copy attached). I suggest you forward this one to Mr. Colby for his signature to maintain precedent of our earlier responses.

MEMORANDUM FOR HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES
HAVING CIVIL EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS RESPONSIBILITIES

I request your review and comment on the enclosed Clearance Draft of "Documents for Contingencies (Other Than a Plan D Situation) which Justify Application of Emergency Measures on a National Scale."

As indicated in the Foreword and Introduction, these are draft documents for consideration, adaptation and use in a wide range of national emergencies other than the sudden, crippling nuclear attack for which Federal Emergency Plan D provides the necessary emergency documents.

These draft documents were developed by a subcommittee of the Interagency Emergency Preparedness Committee. That group recommended that they be issued as planning documents in order to:

1. Identify departments and agencies with responsibility for maintaining the documents in readiness;
2. Obtain a prior review of the documents to assure continued applicability and to consider possible additions; and
3. Provide guidance for agencies responsible for plans and arrangements should these documents be issued in time of emergency.

Further information or assistance on these draft documents can be obtained from Mr. E. J. Quindlen, Assistant Director for Government Preparedness, 395-5694. A copy of this correspondence is being sent to your Defense Coordinator.

I will appreciate receiving the results of your review on or before May 26, 1972.
